TWO GAMES TO-DAY.

Wheeling and Mansfield Play This Morning and Again in the After-noon-Two Battles Royal Are to be Expected-Fandom will be There

As usual, the "Fourth" is a day of sport in Wheeling. Foremost, of sourse, comes the base ball games at 10:30 a. m. and 3:45 p. m., at the Island Park, when the Wheeling and Mansfield teams of the Inter-State league come together in two contests. Wheeling has always been lucky in holiday games, and the fans will root hard for games, and the fans will root hard for two straight to-day. In the moraling Wells and Smith will pribably twirl for their respective teams, and in the afternoon Poole or Parvin for Wheeling and Irwin for Mansfield will be on the sigh. Durrett, late Wheeling's left fielder, is with the Mansfields, and is hitting a merry clip these days. Wheeling's management is making a commendable effort to give the town a winning nine, and the fans ought to turn out to-day en masse and show that Mr. Howell's enterprise is appreciated.

[LETTER TO MEE. PERSONAN NO. 71.935] "DRAS MRS. PINERAM-I have three the womb and suffered with falling of the womb and fooding. My physician scraped the womb, still the flooding continued and I was no better. At last he advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. BELLAIRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County

The county commissioners have con-tracted with A. J. Norton to make a special plat of this city for the use of special plat of this city for the use of the land appraiser next year. Captain Abe Lash will do the same at Martin's Ferry, and County Surveyor John A. Bond will superintend the work of platting the other townships in the county. Mr. Bond did this work for 1880 and also for 1890 and his familiarity with it ought to produce good results for 1900. The appraisement stands for ten years and since the last one miany a property owner has felt are not feeling that way so much not It is an important work, however, an the very best judgment should be used in selecting the deceminal appraiser.

SCOTT A CANDIDATE. Robert P. Scott had a long card printed in the Bellaire dailles yesterprinted in the Bellaire dailies yesterday, announcing his candidacy for Congress. His home is nominally at Cadiz, he is reputed to be very wealthy and he says some things in his card very nicely. It is not at all probable that as a candidate for Congress his success will compare with his business success, however, and yet no one can make a reliable prediction as to the nominee. Belmont is a big county and has about as many votes in the convention as two of the other counties. The glassworkers at Steubenville numbering about seven hundred, give Hon. J. J. Gill the same hearty endorsement they gave him five years ago.
